

Research Checkpoint

Name (s) _____

Research Topic _____

Write a statement explaining why you chose your topic, what your project is about, and how it relates to revolution, reaction, and reform. (2-4 sentences)

Total number of Bibliography cards written by all group members _____ (count them all)

Total Number of Primary Sources: _____ Total number of Secondary Sources _____

Break down your Bibliography cards into the following categories:

Primary Sources:

Books _____

Newspapers _____

Magazines _____

Videos/DVD _____

Interviews _____

Internet _____

Other _____

Secondary Sources:

Books _____

Newspapers: _____

Magazines: _____

Videos/DVD _____

Interviews _____

Internet _____

Other _____

What is the best source of information you have found so far? (Hint: Name a book, website, interview, newspaper collection, or some other source that has been most helpful) Each group member must choose a different answer for this question.

Where have you obtained research information other than Canton High School? Where have you gone to do research. Who did you fax or write? Include any responses by mail, email, or telephone.

Contest Deadline_____

Number of days left before contest_____

Rate the following comments on a scale of 1-5 with 5 being the highest response and 1 being the lowest. Use NA if a question does not apply to you. (Be honest with yourself)

I believe I am doing a good job with the research of my history project._____

I believe I will complete my history project by the contest deadline._____

I believe my project can be a winning entry._____

I believe I have utilized my research time well._____

I am using time outside my history class to work on my project._____

I have a good understanding of my topic and its relationship to the theme._____

I am completely satisfied with my history project at this time._____

At this time, what help/guidance do you feel is needed? _____
